

MEDIA ADVISORY

Ursus Redivivus” Bear Sculpture Unveiling in Downtown Berkeley BART Plaza

WHAT: Ursus Redivivus is a giant kinetic bear sculpture made from the escalator parts created by local kinetic-sculpture artists Alex Nolan, Phillip Glashof and his son Chad.

WHEN: Monday, March 9, 4PM

WHERE: Downtown Berkeley BART Plaza, Shattuck Ave between Allston and Center, Berkeley, CA 94704

WHO: Mayor Tom Bates, Councilmember Jesse Arreguin, city staff, Downtown Berkeley Association and the local community

WHY: Celebrate this innovative new piece of public art in Berkeley, and the pioneering temporary installation that paves the way for installing more public art in Berkeley.

ADMISSION: FREE

CONTACT: Alex Nolan – artist
cell: (510) 759-1225
ohmdrone1@gmail.com
alextnolan.firemachines.com

MORE INFO: <http://www.berkeleyside.com/2014/07/08/berkeley-spark-2-0-will-feature-more-ideas-metal-bear/>