DOWNTOWN BERKELEY ASSOCIATION Delivers LIVE music directly to district parklets with Music On Wheels Program

(Berkeley, CA) — The Downtown Berkeley Association (DBA), On Friday, October 9th from 6pm-10pm, will be partnering with the Freight & Salvage in an event they are calling Freight On Wheels, delivering live music directly to Downtown Berkeley parklets via a 1941 Chevy flat-bed truck with hay bales and covered in lights.

The Arts have been among the hardest hit communities during this global pandemic. Still, as a community, Downtown Berkeley has seen some incredible creativity resulting in some amazing and unique pivots bringing our district together in new and engaging ways while we wait for the day we can assemble in our local venues and theatres once again.

Freight On Wheels live music event is a unique and safe way to bring live performance directly to the people in Downtown Berkeley. On Friday October 9th the DBA will be loading instrumental bluegrass trio Thompsonia in the back of the flat-bed truck and taking them on a tour of seven Downtown Berkeley parklets.

The event will kick off Music On Wheels, a live music delivery series that will last for as long as the weather holds out. This first parklet tour will visit seven Downtown Berkeley parklets and new parklets will be added. The truck will pull up alongside each parklet for 30-minute performances before driving off to the next location.

Parklets included on this tour include:
